

Polynesia Line Service

Polynesia Line is owned by The China Navigation Company Pte Ltd (“CNCo”), the deep sea shipping arm of the Swire group, who have been a proud and committed shareholder in the Line for the last 34 years. It is a sound and well run shipping service with a strong and loyal customer base and a long pedigree of serving the South Pacific. As such Polynesia Line is the premiere shipping network from the US to the Pacific Islands, offering a fortnightly service from Long Beach and Oakland to Tahiti, Tonga, Samoa and American Samoa and the wider Pacific.

The Line has outstanding customer relationships, regional partnerships and wide market coverage and operates modern tonnage, offering a cargo profile that includes the full range of containerised options, as well as unitised, breakbulk and project cargoes.

Service Network

Polynesia Line, established in 1967, was initially developed around the tuna business out of Pago Pago in American Samoa. Over the intervening years the business has grown and now Polynesia Line provides one of the most comprehensive ocean transportation services between US West Coast and Tahiti, American Samoa, Western Samoa and the wider Pacific Islands, including Micronesia. The Company operates a fortnightly frequency with direct ports of call in Long Beach, Oakland, Papeete, Apia and Pago Pago. Feeder service between Hawaii and California and Washington state and California.
